The Directors and Management of Income Asset Management Group Limited (IAM or the Company) are committed to conducting the business of IAM and its controlled entities (the Group) in an ethical manner and in accordance with the highest standards of corporate governance. The Company has adopted and substantially complies with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Fourth Edition) (Recommendations) to the extent appropriate to the size, life cycle stage and nature of the Group's operations.

Consistent with the Company's commitment to transparency in its dealings with stakeholders, this Corporate Governance Statement (Statement) has been prepared by reference to each recommendation contained in the Recommendations.

In this Statement, all references to the Company's website are to <https://incomeam.com/> (Website).

The Board seeks to ensure that IAM is properly managed to protect and enhance shareholder interests, and that IAM and its directors, officers and personnel operate in a manner that is legal, ethical and fair to shareholders. Accordingly, the Board has created a framework for managing IAM, including adopting relevant internal controls, risk management processes and corporate governance policies and practices which it believes are appropriate for IAM's business and which are designed to promote the responsible management and conduct of the Company.

The Statement was approved by the Company's Board on 30 August 2024 and is current as at that date. Reporting is for the year ended 30 June 2024 (Reporting Period), unless stated otherwise.

Principle 2 - Structure the Board to add value A listed entity should have a board of an appropriate size, composition, skills and commitment to enable it to discharge its duties effectively.
2.1 The board of a listed entity should:  (a) have a nomination committee which:  (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and  (2) is chaired by an independent director,  and disclose:  (3) the charter of the committee;  (4) the members of the committee; and  (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or  (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Compliant	The Board is responsible for the nomination and selection of directors. The Board periodically reviews its membership and evaluates the skills and experience represented, in order to identify any aspects which need to be supplemented. The Board is always open to recruiting candidates who can add functionality and provide relevant insights and skills to improve its knowledge pool. When a need is identified to address a particular skills gap, the Board conducts a process to identify suitable candidates, through business networks and also using recruitment specialists, where appropriate. Once suitable candidates are identified, each Board member is given the opportunity to interview the candidate, and the Company undertakes background checks, including police and insolvency clearances, reference checks and reputational enquiries in respect of the candidate, prior to any appointment being made.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.

Compliant

The Board aims to be comprised of Directors who have, at all times, the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to IAM's business and the Board's responsibilities.

The Board has compiled a matrix of skills and experience which it considers necessary in order for it to effectively discharge its duties.

Board Skills

The Board, via the use of its skills matrix, has assessed the relevant level of each competency on the Board and although some competencies and skills are better represented than others, the Board is of the opinion that collectively it has an adequate skill level for all competencies to discharge its duties.

In addition to the skills and experience set out in diagram above, the Board considers that each director has the following attributes:

- integrity;
- strategic thinking;
- sufficient time to devote to IAM's business;
- willingness to question and challenge; and
- commitment to the highest standards of governance.

2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Not Compliant	The Board currently comprises three Directors, one of whom is considered to be independent. The current Board composition is considered to be appropriate to the size of the Company and the stage of its life cycle, given the industry experience, access to corporate history and investment the current Directors represent. As the Company scales its activities and seeks to enhance its governance practices, Board composition will be regularly reviewed.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Partly-Compliant	Mr Nantes, Chair of the Board, is not an independent Director as he currently occupies an executive position with the Company. The Board has agreed that Mr Nantes is the most appropriate director to hold the position of Chair in light of his relevant experience and expertise, regardless of his executive position. The positions of Chair and CEO are held by separate persons (Mr John Nantes and Mr Jon Lechte respectively).
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Compliant	The Company has an effective orientation programme for new Directors in place, including the provision of historical corporate documents and policies and the opportunity to engage with senior executives. The Board, under the guidance of the Chair, considers professional development opportunities for individual directors and industry-relevant engagement opportunities for the Board and senior executives, from time to time.
Principle 3 - Act ethically and responsibly A listed entity should act ethically and responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values:	Compliant	The Board is committed to providing an ethical and legal framework within which Company's employees conduct IAM's business. The IAM values are captured on the landing page of the Website: "IAM values are to operate ethically - putting our clients first, challenging the industry on anti-competitive behaviour (i.e. charging exit fees and low transparency), and adhering to our core values of being the most trusted, honest, fair, diligent and meritocratic financial services company in our field."

3.2	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that code.	Compliant	The Board has adopted a Corporate Code of Conduct, which is available on the Website, and which sets out the values, commitments, ethical standards and policies of IAM and outlines the standards of conduct expected of the business and IAM's employees, taking into account IAM's legal and other obligations to its stakeholders. Any material breaches of the Code of Conduct are reported to the Board, through the Company's Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee.
3.3	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a whistleblower policy; and (b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material incidents reported under that policy.	Compliant	The Company has adopted a Whistleblower Policy, which is available on the Website. Any material incidents reported under the policy are reported to the Board.
3.4	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose an anti-bribery and corruption policy; and  (b) ensure that the board or committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that policy.	Compliant	The Board has adopted a Corporate Code of Conduct, which includes anti-bribery and corruption provisions. Any material breaches of the Code of Conduct (which may be viewed on the Website) are reported to the Board.

Principle 4 - Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting

A listed entity should have formal and rigorous processes that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting.

4.1	The board of a listed entity should:  (a) have an audit committee which:  (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and  (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board,	Part-Compliant	The Board has established an Audit Committee, comprising three members, being: John Nantes (Chair, appointed following the resignation of Fiona Dunn), Craig Swanger and Simon Maidment. The Chair of the Audit Committee is currently also the Chair of the Board, and only one committee member is independent, but the Board is working to recruit an additional director in FY25, and subsequently alter the composition of this committee. The charter of the Committee may be viewed on the Website. The relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the Audit Committee, along with the detail of committee meetings and member attendance, are set out in the Company's Annual Report to shareholders for the year ending 30 June 2024 (Annual Report).
